BACKGROUND AND POLICY

State Branches, National Divisions and Working Groups can provide and produce content for their respective pages on the public website and members' portal. All material must be sent to the website moderator at the National Office for verification and uploading to reduce the risk of incorrect or inappropriate material being placed on the website for which the Association could be held liable.

All material should be clearly dated, titled and attributed to the correct author(s), State Branch, National Division or Working Group. In addition, any presentations from seminars or conferences must be accompanied by a signed Copyright Form prior to being published.

As per the WMAA Privacy Statement, documents, papers and articles linked to or from the WMAA public site and members' portal are provided for the information of WMAA's members. WMAA does not guarantee the validity of any information, nor does WMAA represent or warrant any information contained in the documents, papers and articles. Further, in providing these, WMAA does not imply or endorse any views or positions as may be contained in the documents, papers and articles.

The full Privacy Statement can be found on the WMAA public site.

All information that are gathered under the auspices of the WMAA or through its State Branches, National Divisions and Working Groups remains the property of WMAA, and as such should only be housed on the official WMAA website.
