

ISWA World Wide

The International Solid Waste Association has members in more than 70 countries around the world and has Regional Offices in South America, Asia and Pacific and the Middle East. The Regional Offices organise local meetings and conferences which allows you to keep up to date with new developments in your area. ISWA is also a partner of the UN Environmental Programme (UNEP) and has close contact with the Basel Convention, World Bank and WHO.

ISWA and the EU

The International Solid Waste Association has a unique stakeholder status with the EU Commission. ISWA has a seat at all waste related stakeholder meetings held by the Commission. ISWA is invited to special expert groups under the Commission and twice a year ISWA meets with the head of unit G4 - Sustainable Consumption & Production. Furthermore ISWA has received EU funding in 2004, 2005 and 2006.
