“Where a proposed Corporate or Individual Member is an incorporated body representing a group of council's or other consortia, the benefits, rights and obligations of membership are applicable only to the incorporated body and its direct employees.

The benefits, rights and obligations of membership of the incorporated body do not pass onto members of the group of council, businesses or consortia.

However separate membership (corporate or individual) for individual members of groups of councils or consortia can be obtained entitling them to the applicable benefits, rights and obligations of membership.”
